Listing of Claims:

1–32. (Cancelled)

33. (Original) A magnetic recording head comprising:

a substrate;

a magnetically permeable thin film disposed on the substrate; and a gap pattern in the magnetically permeable thin film; wherein the thin film includes a material chosen from the family of iron nitride alloys.

34. (Original) A magnetic recording head for writing servo tracks comprising:

a magnetically permeable substrate having two ferrite blocks glass bonded to a medially disposed ceramic member;

a magnetically permeable thin film disposed on at least one surface of the substrate thereby providing a major surface;

a gap pattern formed in the thin film; and a coil coupled to the substrate for causing magnetic flux to flow through the substrate and the thin film; wherein the thin film FeXN.
